15 MACQUARIE PLACE,
SYDNEY.

March 1897

My dear Sir.

This will introduce to you the Honble A. Hughes Clark M.C.C. - Attorney General Tasmania.
He is travelling through your country, chiefly for his health, is accompanied by his wife.
As he will probably not know
many people in your City, I commend him to your kind offices.

Mr. Clark is a friend of mine of several years standing - he sat together in the Federal Convention of 1891 which did so much to to give definite shape to the aspirations of all true Australian Federationists - I need scarcely say that he was one of the men capable of any enterprise.

With kindest regards,

Yours very truly
W. McMillan
